SOUTH BAY

Packin' HEAT

WHO: The NorthBay Guns-N-Hoses Hockey Club will be playing the South Bay Packin' HEAT regional public safety team in a charity hockey game next month. Both teams are comprised of firefighters, law enforcement, and EMS professionals from their respective ends of the Bay Area.

WHAT: A full day of hockey and festivities to support PTSD treatment for First Responders, graciously hosted by the San Jose Barracuda, the AHL affiliate of the San Jose Sharks. One ticket gets you admission to both games. Purchase tickets here: www.sjbarracuda.com/gunsandhoses, use promo code 'PTSD'.

WHEN: Sunday, March 25th at 10 AM. Block party next door to the SAP Center afterwards with raffles, games, and special guests, followed by the San Jose Barracuda hosting the Tucson Roadrunners in an AHL game at 3 PM.

WHERE: The SAP Center is located at 525 West Santa Clara St, San Jose, CA 95113

HOW: Use the promo code to purchase special tickets for the Barracuda game where a portion goes directly towards the scholarship fund at the West Coast Post-Trauma Retreat, an inpatient facility specifically to treat job related PTSD in First Responders which is part of the First Responder Support Network. 100% of proceeds from raffle sales and special ticket portions will go directly to the beneficiary.

NOTE: More information will be available in the upcoming weeks at our Facebook page (Northbay Guns & Hoses Hockey Club), Instagram (@northbaygunsandhoses), and www.northbaygunsnhoses.org. Media inquiries: northbaygunsnhoses@gmail.com
